FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

- † Farewell: I truly enjoyed my ministry at Harrah and McCloud. People showed their love for me abundantly. I will never forget their affection and concern for me even though it was very short duration. I wished to stay longer, but God has His own plans. I promise to be in touch with you. Please pray for my new assignment at Perry.
- † Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: In today's second reading, St. Paul provides a wonderful one-sentence summary of Christian stewardship: Out of love, place yourselves at one another's service.
- † Word of Life: Already at the dawn of Christianity, many Christians, attracted by Christ's example and sustained by his love, were to witness to the faith by pouring out their blood. The first martyrs would be followed by others down the centuries to our day. How can we not recognize that professing the Christian faith demands the heroism of the Martyrs in our time too, in various parts of the world? Through the year with Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI
