Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, “Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me.” The Lord said to her in reply, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her.” Luke 10:38-42

From the Pastor's Desk

- Whether we are to serve by active work or contemplative listening is God's decision. In either case, how do we serve? Martha and Mary are both honored in the liturgy as obedient disciples, but they show two faces of service: self-concerned and self-forgetful. Which one is the face of our own spirit of service?
- "There is need of only one thing." The Responsorial Psalm tells us what it is: living in the presence of the Lord. Abraham coaxes this presence: "Sir, please do not go on past your servant." Jesus enters a village and goes into the home of Martha and Mary. Yet, the "anxious and worried" Martha prefers her trivial distractions to the winning attraction of Christ. "The surest sign that something is off in Martha's soul is that she even tells God what to do!" (R. Barron). Saint Paul attests that God's stewardship is given to him "to bring to completion for you the Word of God." Christian stewardship demands stillness, silence, and attentiveness before the Presence. To those who choose the better part, God chooses "to make known the riches of the glory of this mystery."
