From the Pastor's Desk

- “Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward.” This happens literally to the “women of influence” who furnishes “a little room on the roof” for the Prophet Elisha to stay in. Elisha promises, “This time next year you will be fondling a baby son.” We beg for the grace to be able to face the sacrifices and sufferings of daily existence fortified with the desire to endure all for Jesus’ sake. Then, as Saint Paul promises, “We too might live in newness of life.”
- Death itself has been conquered by Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross. Our baptismal sharing in his saving Death bears fruit every time we show love or mercy to another, every time we choose God over self.
