From the Pastor's Desk

- Jesus declares, "All things have been handed over to me by my Father." The pinnacle of this is the handing over of "the Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead." Christ assures us that what the Father has handed over to him is the ability to console those "who labor and are burdened." These things of heaven are "revealed to little ones" because they refuse to rely on themselves, and thus they remain best disposed to receive all that God is eager to give. They "rejoice heartily" and "shout for joy" at the coming of our meek King who, by his very presence, "proclaims peace to the nations."
- As baptized Christians, we are blessed to have the Spirit of God living within us. Let us strive always to be aware of this great grace and allow God to work in us at all times. e choose God over self.
